DR. MAE KELLY

To Speak At Con-Terra Club

The Con-Terra Woman's Club of Concord will hold its regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Clayton Stanley of Westview Circle in Thomas Terrace at 7:30 on Thursday evening, November 2.

The speaker of the evening will be Dr. Mae Kelly who will talk on "The Role of the Christian Woman in her Community."

Dr. Kelly is a retired teacher of Psychology from Madison College. She has had broad experiences in the education field, having taught in the elementary and high school areas before entering the college field. For a number of years she served as Elementary Supervisor and Director of Instruction in several counties of the State. She was Supervisor of Student Teachers in Radford College and Director of Teacher Training in Florence State Teachers College in Florence, Alabama.

She is Co-Author of a series of English books, published by Rand McNally Company.

Dr. Kelly received the Outstanding Citizenship Award in 1971 given by the Concord Ruritan Club.

Her activities include church work, Delta Kappa Gamma activities, membership in America Association of University Women, President of Concord Garden Club, member of Piedmont Heart Association Board, and YWCA Board. One of her many hobbies is cooking.

Dr. Kelly is a native Virginian, received her elementary and high school education in Campbell County, her B. S. Degree from Farmville College, her M.A. Degree from Columbia University, New York, and her Ph.D. Degree from Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee.

We would rather have one man or woman working with us than three merely working for us.

Fashion Show At Junior Woman's Club Meeting

The October meeting of the Junior Women's Club of Appomattox was held in the home of Mrs. Judy Deavers, Tuesday evening, October 24th.

Mrs. Betsy Carter, president presided over the business meeting held prior to the fashion show of Queen's Way Two Fashions' product line of clothes and jewelry. Mrs. Elizabeth H. Denton, sales representative of the company, moderated the fashion show.

The fashions were modeled for the club members and guests by Miss Ida Wills, regular model for Mrs. Denton; four club members — Mrs. Myralynn Tutwiler, Mrs. Barbara Williams, Mrs. Frances Avery, and Mrs. Renee McGrath; and a prospective new member — Mrs. Annette Millner.

Following the fashion demonstrations, club members and guests had the opportunity to try on and purchase items from the product line demonstrated or from the company catalog. A percentage of the sales will be returned to the club treasury to be used for various club projects.

Refreshments were provided for members and guests by Mrs. Ann Robinson, Mrs. Linda Stewart, Mrs. Ann Ferguson, and Mrs. Frances Lewis.

APACHE

MESA

Apache Solid State construction takes the weather worries out of camping. There's no canvas anywhere. So there's nothing to shrink, tear, fade or mildew. Instead, Apache has solid roof and walls made of tough ABS thermoplastic. A remarkable material that puts up a solid front against the weather. It adds months to the camping season, years to the life of the trailer. And makes possible exclusive Apache features like a self-storing aluminum door; sliding windows and fully draped interior walls. Eight new Solid State Models, starting as low as $1345. Come in and see them.

Extension Homemakers Club Holds Meeting

The Henry Penny Extension Homemakers Club met with Mrs. Hilda Jones, co-hostess with Mrs. Martha Pankey. The president, Mrs. Martha Watkins called the meeting to order. Mrs. Pankey led the devotion by singing "America the Beautiful." Mrs. Ora McCoy read passages of scripture from the Psalms of David. Mrs. Webb led us in prayer. After the roll call and reading of the minutes, the necessary discussions and business was transacted.

We were glad to have Mrs. Johnson with us. She gave the month's demonstration and showed a film on "Planning and Planting Flower Borders."

We made plans for Athievement Day. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Pankey served very delicious refreshments during the social hour which followed the adjournment. Our Nov. meeting will be with Mrs. Mary C. Hudson. Plan now to attend.
